HARDING UNIVERSITY HOMECOMING 2011

You are all we need...

OCTOBER 27 - 29

All we need for an outstanding Homecoming weekend is for you and your friends to come back to campus and relive the memories from your college years. Invite prospective students to come to Bison Days and take a look at your alma mater for their future collegiate decisions. Many changes have occurred over the years, yet the Harding experience is still great.

Join us for all of the Homecoming festivities, including the musical "Annie" which will entertain all ages and showcase the talent of our students, the dedication of the Jim Citty Football and Athletic Training Complex, and the 50th anniversary of Zeta Rho social club.

The classes of '61, '56, '51 '46, '41 and '36 will be inducted at the Heritage Circle Banquet and will reunite throughout the weekend with several activities. More reunions are being finalized, and it is not too late for your group or friends to reconnect.

Celebrate the outstanding and distinguished alumni who will be honored at the Black and Gold Banquet. Dr. Clifton L. Ganus Jr. ('43) will serve as emcee.

One of the highlights of the weekend is Saturday's alumni chapel in the Administration Auditorium. Dr. David Burks ('65) will be the keynote speaker with family members of Andy T. Ritchie Jr. leading the song service.

Later that afternoon, attend the football game as the Bisons take on Ouachita Baptist University. Other activities include the family picnic for all reunion years, the Faith and Business Symposium and Symposium for Faith and Sciences, reunions, petting zoo, inflat-able games and much more.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS

Serving as minister for Camp Creek Church of Christ in Atlanta, Dr. Howard Wright ('68) has made it his mission to help those in need. He has preached in churches across the country, including Arkansas, New York and Pennsylvania.

In addition to his ministerial duties, Wright formerly held the position of executive director of Target Youth Centers, a Long Island-based program responsible for juvenile delinquency prevention, court diversion and drug prevention. Wright trained community volunteers and students in mediation and conflict resolution to assist young people in trouble with the court system.

He is a clinical family therapist and licensed clinical social worker, facilitating marriage and family workshops with his wife, Claudine. He lectures on human relations symposiums and social work seminars, conducts mediation and conflict resolution workshops, and peer leadership workshops for public schools.

Under Wright's leadership, the Camp Creek Church initiated a male mentoring program for boys in the congregation and the neighborhood schools.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG ALUMNUS

Liza Freeman ('02) Wright has worked in various congressional, senatorial and state offices. She is currently employed by The Winrock Group Inc.

Wright serves as chair of Harding's President's Council and works in coordinating meetings, activities and communication with its 1,200 members.

This year Wright co-chaired the Big Brothers Big Sisters Toast and Roast to benefit children in need of a mentor to fill the role of a missing adult in their lives. She has been on the board for five years and now serves as secretary.

Wright is a graduate of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce's Leadership program and serves on the Leadership Greater Little Rock Alumni board where she is past chair. She was selected by Little Rock's magazine Soiree and featured as a "Woman to Watch" in 2009.

Wright is the corresponding secretary for the Daughters of the American Revolution and a member of the Arkansas Arts Center.

She and her husband, Chris, live in Little Rock, Ark.
